

NEVER-BEFORE-SEEN TECHNIQUE CONNECTS COUPLES!

*“Truly original, in over 30 years as a counselor educator,
I have never seen anything like this!”*

—Mark E. Young Ph. D. Professor, Counselor Education

True love is a journey, sadly most don't know the way.

Do you know why so many couples fail or feel like something important is missing in their relationships?

Relationship self-help expert, Pat McGowan says, “It's because no one ever taught us how to create and sustain an intimate connection with a partner. It's that simple. Often, the answer isn't as complicated as we make it out to be.”

He adds, “Relationships are failing at historical rates, not because of choice, by lack of knowledge. We've all heard 50% of marriages will end in divorce. The status quo isn't working and it's not our fault. We're unprepared entering a relationship and are stuck trying to figure things out as we go. With that backward approach, I'm surprised the odds are even 50/50.”

Pat believes society needs a blueprint that everyone can follow to achieve the most intimate connection possible with their partner. An easy to understand, universal, step-by-step manual every couple can apply to their unique situation. In doing so, their happiness will be based solely on their desire to succeed, and chance will be removed entirely from the equation.

Although many told him it was impossible, he set out to do it. Pat began by attending the University of Central Florida where he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, Master of Science in Criminal Justice, and Education Specialist Degree in School Counseling.

After years of specialized education, counseling individuals, and personal experience, he accomplished his goal! The blueprints to love exist, and they're called, “PROJECT INTIMACY.”

Now, whether you're single, in a relationship that's going strong, or having problems, you can benefit immediately. Within hours, you'll know exactly what to do to create the deepest connection possible with your partner.
